Who Is Your Neighbour?

A theme that will have a universal appeal is found in "Double-Crossed," a picture starring Pauline Frederick. This is the fact that not one of us really knows all about the persons nearest to us in our daily life. For instance, in "Double-Crossed" a devoted young wife learns for the first time of a youthful slip on the part of her husband whom she adored and whom she had unconsciously placed on a pedestal too high for any man. What happened when she found out his crime and how a new and deeper understanding was brought about between them, is pictured by Miss Frederick with all the wondrous artistry of which she is capable.

Decorated by The King

Word recently received from Dr. Eager, states that the convalescent hospital camp where he has been located for some time in England, is to be closed during this month, and he is in hopes of getting back to old Ontario. He states that himself and ten other Canadians received their military decorations from King George, at Buckingham Palace, a short time ago. A picture enclosed shows the burial place of Captain Gordon-Campbell at Mont St. Elie, in France. The picture while recalling sad memories portrays beautiful scenery.

Many flocks of geese have been observed this week flying northward.

Mrs. M. U. Lyon, of Leeds, North Dakota, who has been spending the winter with her son, Oscar Lyon, and his family, of Social Plains, is visiting with her grand-daughter, Mrs. G. S. Tucker.

Seed Sowing and Early Care of Vegetables

(Experimental Farm Note)

The sowing of the seed and the early care of vegetables are very important factors in the successful growing of them. The seed of some kinds of vegetables will germinate at a temperature and under certain conditions of moisture at which other seeds will not germinate and will sometimes rot.

Seeds of beets, carrots, lettuce, onions, parsnips, peas, radishes, kohlrabi, garden cress, salinity, spinach, parsley and leeks can be sown as soon as the ground is dry enough in the spring so that it will work well. The seeds germinate at relatively low temperatures and the plant will stand considerable frost without serious injury. Other vegetables such as cabbage, cauliflower and celery will also stand frost, but these are usually started in a hotbed in order to save time in the field.

Vegetables which require higher temperatures than the above in order to grow well, and which are injured by light frosts are beans, corn, cucumbers, melons, potatoes and squashes.

Seeds of late cabbage is not sown until late in May, but it will endure frost, and seed of swede turnip should be sown late when required for the table.

In order to obtain plants subject to light frosts, which are well advanced before being set out, and to save considerable time in the field, melons, eggplants, peppers and tomatoes are usually started in hot-beds.

Frequently lack of germination of seed is blamed on the quality of the seed, whereas it may be due to the way the seed is planted or the rotting of the seed in the ground, when certain kinds of seed have been sown too early. Small vegetable seeds are often planted much too deeply. For the smaller seeds one-quarter of an inch for the smallest to one (continued on inside page)

CASTLE COOMBE

The meeting of the recreation society held in the Mayfield Schoolhouse, was well attended especially considering the busy time of the year. The discussion of different clauses of the bylaws and the constitution of the revision and adoption of same created much interest, and augurs well for the success of the society.

It was also decided that should a Grain Growers local be organized in this community, the recreation society should become absorbed in that organization.

The next meeting will be held at 7 p.m., April 30, in the Langholm Schoolhouse and the election of officers and committees will take place.

on a plane of perfect equality, and that cannot be until the East agrees to the transfer of the natural resources of the Western provinces. Until that is done, confederation is top-sided and still incomplete. There can be no real confederation except where all the confederated units stand in equality the one to the other. As long as any one is forced into a position of inferiority, there will be discontent and the elements of disunion.

In matters of fiscal and economic policy, a spirit of conciliation must prevail, or special interests could easily come into conflict. Neither East nor West must seek, nor expect, to impose its views and will, wholly and absolutely on the other. In other words, the West must not insist on devoting itself to the agrarian. West larger freedom of trade, wider opportunities, and the development of Western outlets in connection with the disposition of surplus labor of the West. To do so is selfish, a dogmatic policy, because such policies will be highly beneficial to the West, do not do injury to the manufacturing industry of the East.

The development and prosperity of one section of the Dominion has a direct and beneficial effect on the other section. While both East and West must get along together, the West must benefit more largely by the development and prosperity of the other. Therefore, each should do what lies in its power to encourage and assist the other, and both must deny themselves something for the sake of the other. This, I repeat, must be mutual sacrifice and co-operation for the common good of all.

These things can be brought about by better knowledge and understanding of the manufacturers and political leaders should visit the West more frequently, and not merely for pleasure, but for the purpose of actual and close study of conditions with a view to the betterment of all. Eastern manufacturers should send some of their leaders to attend the annual Grain Growers' conventions in the West, and the Canadian Manufacturers Association and the Canadian Council of Agriculture should take place periodically. Eastern men might well learn from the West, and vice versa.

On the other hand, Western people must make a closer study of economics, world conditions, international relations and competition in trade, and must be on their guard against the importation of foreign goods which do not meet their demands, and, in their effort to secure the removal of what they regard as injustices to themselves, insist on what would mean injustice to others.

Atlantic Air Liners

London. — Vickers Limited are about to start a trans-atlantic air service with airships while the company was building for the British when the armistice was signed, and which are no longer needed, the Pall Mall Gazette says. The passenger rate will be £48 and mail will be carried at the rate of £405 a ton. The pioneer ship will have a gas capacity of 1,200,000 cubic feet and engines of 1,000 horsepower. Larger ships are being designed to carry 200 passengers.

SPRING IMPURITIES CLOG THE BLOOD

A Tonic Medicine Is a Necessity At This Season

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the Headache, a blood-builder and nerve restorer. But they are especially valuable in the removal of spring impurities as a result of the indoor life of the winter months. There is nothing more important than that the blood is so much in need of purifying and enriching, and every dose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do this.

In the spring the poisons in the blood find an outlet in the discharge of urine, perspiration, etc. In the spring anemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, erysipelas and many other diseases are apt to appear. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills develop the appetite, tone the system, and remove the poisons in the spring that poison the blood and tire the body. In the spring the one feels weak and tired. — Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give the body a new lease of life.

Both men and women benefit by the development and prosperity of the other. Therefore, each should do what lies in its power to encourage and assist the other, and both must deny themselves something for the sake of the other. ### Repelling Guns for Allies

Paris. — The Krupp works at Essen, the world's greatest plant for the manufacture of weapons, have built a monstrous engine of 100 tons that from any other spot on the earth, now are silent and idle, paraded by the victory of the allies. In all the great arsenals of France, England, Italy, and Germany, there are but few guns that are burning, the only ones that are burning, in one little corner where a few mechanics are at work upon some cannon—repairing them so that the allies will accept them with the honors surrendered under the terms of the armistice.

This was what the note said:

"My beloved,

"I've got to be away for once—tonight—and it will seem an eternity while I am not in the same town which sheltered me."

"Richard Cooper is going to guard the house tonight, so you will be quite safe. I could be there myself."

"But, dearest of all, I want to take you with me. Tomorrow is 14th Christmas eve, you know, and don't you think we can go and buy a Christmas present for our dear son?"

"Say, 'Well, I'll do it, darling, if you have a surprise in store for me. I have gone up to town tonight to arrange for a car, and I'll be back in time to meet you."

"Good night, my love."

"Your ANTHONY."

This sealed and delivered into the detective's keeping, Anthony rushed off to the station, and just caught the train up to town.

CHAPTER XVIII. The Surprise

It happened that morning at breakfast time, she was nevertheless somewhat console, and a good deal excited by the arrival of Richard Cooper, the son of Richard Cooper, as the clock struck eight.

How like Anthony, she thought, to have arranged that they should have the last day alone together, for in the way they had been, no doubt; long experience of her guardian had taught her the love of the Medes and Persians, and that though one day, it would make no difference, she would have to leave Castlecraig, she had opened so many happy hours.

Telling Marie, who had been up all night, but thinking merely that he had been called early out to a case, she had got up and dressed, and packing, Viola commenced to light-heartedly to get out the warm things to be worn, and to put them in the bag before midday went very slowly, she tried to wile away the time, but the surprise he had in store for her. This proved so delightful an occupation, that she did not notice her dreams, and was most startled when the maid brought in a telegram to her. She tore it open and read:

"Have some lunchy before I come, dear."

"The dear, sweet, thoughtful boy!"

"I am so glad you think about me; but you would you mind getting me some coffee and sandwiches as quickly as possible, please, and don't say anything about it to—Marie, she might say, she had not yet got over her conscience, and arrived at a compromise—"might worry at my coming home so late," she said. And well she might, had she only known why!

The sandwiches arrived, and Viola dutifully ate them, while the clock struck half-past ten, and the maid, least affected by her continual presence at it, or the comparisons she made between her own poor wrist watch, and the clock in the hall.

At last, however, she heard the familiar sound of the motor-car, and rushing to the window, she cried Anthony descending from a big, powerful motor-car, and running to the front door.

She was there as soon as he, and when he had shut the door, she opened the door, motor-honoured, for him, and gave a cry of delight.

"Come along! But give me one kiss first, and then we may fly. It's time to go, but we've got no time to waste."

"What about letting Marie know?"

"She is not here, so there is no trouble for talking through kisses isn't easy."

He gave her a message for her.

"Could you go and do it, darling, while I get a thicker coat on? Don't stop, though."

Viola ran to the kitchen, and gave the necessary orders, then flew back to Anthony, who unmercifully drove her into the car, and they drove off.

"Now, my beloved," he said, as soon as they were well out of sight, "I'll tell you about the surprise. It's for you to say whether it shall happen or not. I have a secret to tell you, and I'll do just as you tell me. You perhaps felt that I wasn't very talkative when I told you about the secret I came, but I was thinking hard. Sweetest and dearest, I can't bear to think of you being alone again. I'll be with you from tomorrow, and perhaps managing to keep us apart till the day of my departure, but I am afraid of an inspiration. If you were quite mine, my darling, ah, then, my wife, I could do anything, but I have never loved me again. That was why I asked you to come to me again. Your loving reply made me hope that you say yes."

"I could see that you would make me happy again. Your loving reply made me hope that you say yes."

"I went up to town last night, and as soon as it was possible this morning, I got a car, and driving straight to a church in town, my own, and unless you say no, I will be married to you two hours' time. What do you say, beloved? Is it to be yes or no? Please say yes, and I will be happy again. I will never be parted from you again. You will be my wife today? Viola?"

She said yes, but not frightened or unhappy; she held him straight in the eyes, and said:

"If that would be the happiest, most glorious thing in the world to be your wife, Anthony. Yes?"

She said yes, but not frightened or unhappy; she held him straight in the eyes, and said:

half an inch for those a little larger is deep enough. If planted much deeper the seed may germinate but the shoot does not reach the surface of the ground and the tiny plant dies. Peas, corn and beans are planted about two inches deep. In very loose soils, the surface of which dries down more than those fairly compact, slightly deeper planting may be necessary.

When the seed has germinated, great care should be taken to ventilate hot-beds carefully. When the young plants come up, the frame should be kept sufficiently aired by raising the back or higher part of the sash to prevent the plants from getting spindly or weakly, when they are apt to damp off. When young plants are grown in a window in a house they are often very thick in the pot, and if in the sun, with the surface soil wet, they are very liable to damp off or send. They should be thinned out and transplanted as soon as possible. Great care should be taken when ventilating a hot-bed when the winds are high and cold weather, as cold wind blowing directly on the plants will injure them. A board should be put at the end of the sash to break the force of the wind.

Plants which have been growing in a hot-bed or cold frame or in the house should be exposed to the open-air for several days before they are set in the field, protecting them as usual at night, as if set in the field without hardening off in this way, they are much more liable to be injured in cold or windy weather.

Canadian Y.M.C.A. Gave Away $900,000 in France

During the year 1918 the Canadian Y.M.C.A. expended $225,000 upon athletic equipment which was supplied free to the soldiers. This amounts to a very large degree for the unique position of the Canadian Corps as regards athletes amongst the armies in France. In the same time the sum of $245,000 was spent in supplying free cinemas, concerts, lectures, pianos, gramophones, etc. for the soldiers in France. In addition to these free gifts, stations, periodicals, religious and other literature which cost $160,000, were given free to the soldiers in France during 1918. While the association expended for the goods sold at its canteens, the price being fixed by the British Military authorities, they gave away hot and cold drinks, generally right up close to the front lines where the fighting was heavy, to the value of $120,000 and in addition turned over $150,000, to the various Canadian units in France from the canteen profits. The sum to be spent on extra rations and comforts for the men. These items represent free gifts by the Canadian Y.M.C.A. to the boys in France of approximately $600,000.

Saskatchewan To Record

All Gravel Resources

In preparation for the further improvement of the main roads, the Department of Highways is intending to obtain a record of all gravel deposits in the province, and hopes to secure this information with the co-operation of the reeve and councillors of the rural municipalities, this being a matter in which the councils and the department are equally interested. The conditions will all been written up, and those known of gravel deposits in their district are asked to present from the Secretary-Treasurer small sacks and shipping tags, with which they have been supplied and to send to the department a sample of the gravel for examination.

Information as to the location of the gravel deposits will be beneficial in many ways. The tests will show whether or not the gravel from any pit is suitable for road-building purposes, and the location of good material will be a factor in determining the location and method of constructing a highway. When gravel of good quality is available within reasonable distance, it may often be possible and advisable to build a concrete bridge, instead of steel or timber. Each rural municipality will be advised of the quality of any gravel found within its boundaries, and will be told what proportion of cement to use should they desire to build concrete culverts or small bridges.

Help the Y.M.C.A. Finish its Work For Soldiers

Help the "Y" Construct the Manhood that will Re-construct Canada

ALL the world now knows that the Red Triangle of the Y.M.C.A. was the "Sign of Friendship" to thousands of your brothers, sons, nephews, cousins and neighbours' boys in the last four and a half years. Wherever the Canadian Soldiers went, the "Good old 'Y'" went too. And now it is coming back home with them!

For the support which has made possible the war work of the Y.M.C.A. we thank you. Your money has been well expended. We have rendered full account.

We ask now your continued sympathy and support for Red Triangle Service for our Soldiers during demobilization, and for Y.M.C.A. work for Canada generally during the Reconstruction period. The Annual Red Triangle campaign will be held throughout Canada May 6th to 9th, 1919. The objective is $1,100,000.

For Our Men Returning

For the soldiers and their dependents, returning from Overseas, we have provided as follows:

1. A Red Triangle man on board every ship when it leaves Great Britain, with a full equipment of games, gramophones and records, magic lantern, literature and writing materials. What more can a piano or an organ. Lectures, concerts, singing songs, instruction in Government reparation plan, and Sunday Services.

2. Red Triangle comforts and facilities for the men on arriving trains in Montreal and Toronto, and for the men in free stalls, with free drinks, free eatables, cigarettes, candies, etc.

3. Red Triangle men on every troop train to provide recreation for the men, to entertain, organize games and sing songs, and furnish entertainment.

4. Red Triangle free canteen service, information bureaus, etc., at each of the 22 Dispensary Centres in Canada.

5. Red Triangle Clubs in the principal cities of Canada in the shape of large Y.M.C.A. Societies to furnish social, athletic, literary and dramatic centres and a recreation room for soldiers.

6. Seventy-five Secretaries to superintend Red Triangle service in Military Hospitals, Camps and Barracks throughout Canada.

7. Tickets entitling soldiers to full Y.M.C.A. privileges for six months at any local Y.M.C.A. furnished.

In addition to work for the returning soldiers, we have to thank the Red Triangle service to the full for the work in Siberia, as well as the work of special secretaries in Northern Russia, Palestine and Poland.

For Canada's Manhood

The Reconstruction program of the Y.M.C.A. includes the following vitally important developments:

1. An increased service to 30,000 teen-age boys in the Dominion—the development of Canadian Standard Efficiency training, Bible Study groups; summer camps; conferences; training of young men for working boys in the towns and cities; for boys on the farm and for boys everywhere, who have lacked opportunity for mental, moral, physical or social development.

2. Inauguration of Y.M.C.A. work in the country, and the smaller towns and villages looking after the welfare of the young men on a plan of county organizations. This will include the establishment of Y.M.C.A. centres for social, recreational and educational work among boys and men, and co-operation with the churches.

3. The promotion of Y.M.C.A. work among Canada's army of workers in the factories, mines, mills, farms and in Y.M.C.A. buildings and in the factory buildings, organizing the social spirit among the industrial workers, through meetings, entertainments, games and sports.

4. The establishment of the Red Triangle in isolated districts where lumbermen, miners and other workers had no friends except of like kind.

5. Besides these main fields of increased activity for 1919, we have to provide for enlarged work among railway men, miners, lumbermen, camp workers, mechanics, and sex education. Under all our work we place the fundamental foundation of manly Christianity.

Please Note:

We are not asking for money to carry on our work Overseas, with the Army in Great Britain, France or Belgium. That work will continue at its normal cost, and will be financially provided for by the liquidation of our assets Overseas, and will not terminate till the last man has sailed for home.

FOR the sake of our victorious soldiers and their dependents, and the happiness of their home-coming; for the sake of our future citizens, our teen-age boys; for the sake of rural life in Canada; for the sake of the social betterment of the toilers in factory and workshop; for the sake of lonely men and boys in our mines and forests; for the sake of Christian Society and Canadian manhood—we appeal to you. Give us your contribution, little or big. Be as generous as you can.

Hand your contribution to the canvasser when he calls, or if you live where it is difficult for him to call, send it by check, money order or registered letter to the National Treasurer, Red Triangle Campaign, 120 Bay Street, Toronto.

Trial of Ex-Kaiser Not For Belgium

Paris. — The Belgian delegation at the peace conference informed the correspondent that Belgium had not been officially requested by the court of four to bring the former German emperor to trial, and that the Belgian government would feel obliged to decline to take the steps even if there were any request for such action.

The Belgian delegates hold that any action should be taken by a general assembly of representatives of all the associated powers. The official Belgian view, it was said, is that the former emperor cannot be arraigned for declaring war or violating the neutrality of Belgium or for any act of aggression or of individual responsibility for war.

After pointing out that there is no tribunal competent to hear such charges against the former emperor and no provision of international law covering such cases, the delegates said that the former emperor was guilty of acts punishable under the criminal code of the belligerent powers should he be tried on trial, as thief, disturber and disturber of the peace, and that the court does not release the criminals of responsibility.

"If the commission desires to arraign General Baron von Mantteiffel for the sacking of Louvain, General Scheidemann for the execution of Captain Freytag and General von Sodenberg for the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, all the necessary documents will be forthcoming," said the general secretary of the delegation.

"It wants only justice. It would be small satisfaction to lock the Kaiser up for a few months in the Saint Gilde prison and then release him with the same rights and responsibilities offered Belgian as a soldier for her wrongs, who easily misunderstood the Belgian character, if they thought it acceptable."

The only case in which the personal responsibility of the former emperor for criminal actions committed in Belgium could be established beyond doubt, is in the atrocities attending the deportations of civilians and compelling them to do forced labor in Germany. In this case, his responsibility is unquestionable."

Where They Belong

Over Two Hundred German Submarines at Bottom of Sea

New York. — Rear Admiral Sims, who has been in the United States during its war time activities in European waters, said that he believed there were "205 German submarines at the bottom of the sea."

In a speech at the Bond club, a Virginian, he said:

"The best found many submarines stuck on the bottom with indications showing that many of the men caught inside either committed suicide or killed each other."

Quiet in Odessa

Athens. — There had been no disorders in Odessa since its evacuation by allied troops.

Holland Fears Bolshevism

German Border Strengthened to Prevent Smuggling of Munitions

The Hague. — The frontier guard along the German border has again had to be strengthened because of the efforts made by Bolsheviks to smuggle arms and munitions into Holland. Ten German patrols are armed to prevent soldiers who were trying to cross the country were being taken back. Every traveler who enters Holland is searched in Amsterdam. There is much interest in Amsterdam due to the arrival of a Bolshevik soldier who sought a recognized leader come together daily and parade through the principal streets. While the police are engaged in trying to disband these groups, a crowd of raiders always follows. Jewish visitors at hundreds of thousands of dollars have been looted. In almost every case the windows are first smashed then when the shopkeeper runs out to see what is happening, his car is shot and held by the mob while his shop is robbed. Others hastily put up their shutters when they see bands of men and boys approaching.

Anarchy in Munich

Robbers are Looting Houses and Threatening Banks

London. — Complete anarchy reigns in Munich, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the "Daily Mail." Telegraphs to Berlin have ceased. Trains are not running, and robbers are looting houses and threatening the banks, the dispatch states. The first infantry regiment is said to have joined the Soviets.

Warsaw—Czechoslovakia. — German government troops have occupied the entire town of Madzabog, according to a Weimar dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin. It is reported there was hard fighting, with many casualties on both sides.

Threaten to Use Force

Czech Forces Concentrated at Ostrava in Silesia

Prague. — Czech forces have been concentrated at Ostrava and Dabrova in Silesia, close to the line of demarcation between Czech and Polish armies. The Polish front has been fixed by the allied mission sent there. It is said that the Czechs have announced that they will settle the frontier question by force of arms.

A Czech detachment is said to have entered Polish territory at Lutynia, where it clashed with Polish force, several Polish being wounded.

Greek and Italian Trade

London. — Reuter's latest in connection with Canadian trade developments in Europe, is that a Greek commercial commission is leaving Athens at an early date for Canada to assess the market and to Canadas industrial supply Greek requirements and to arrange preliminaries for placing Greek orders in Canada.

Raw Materials For Germany

May Be Allowed Before Peace Treaty Becomes Effective

Paris. — The council of four of the peace conference went into session with the question of the Adriatic again before it for consideration.

As a result, British secretary for foreign affairs, took the place at the council session of Prime Minister Lloyd George, who has gone to London.

The supreme economic council is meeting to consider the question of permitting Germany to have certain raw materials before the peace treaty becomes effective with a revision of the blockade regulations to that extent, and it is understood the proposal is to allow a few favors.

The economic council members are also considering a plan for the conservation of Italy's coal supplies.

Belgium has been asked to name a delegate to sit on the economic commission.

German Officers Will Demobilize

Berlin. — It is officially announced that German officers will be demobilized and will remain in the service of the army until the minister is able to enlighten their economic difficulties incident to their transfer to civil life.

Considerable Quantities of Foodstuffs Have Been Considered Especially to Denmark, the Netherlands, and France. — The minister of agriculture, Dr. H. G. von Tschirner, has decided that the food supplies are for home consumption.

No Russian Approaches

London. — In answer to a question from John R. Clynes, a labor leader, whether approaches for peace have been made by the Russian government, the minister said his government had no such demand in mind.

He added: "We telegraphed to our ambassador in Moscow that we were considering the possibility of sending considerable quantities of foodstuffs to Denmark, the Netherlands, and France. He said: "We are not yet in a position to say exactly what we are going to do."

None has been put before the conference.

Trade Outlook Bright

Market Is Opening for Sale of Canadian Products

Ottawa. — A cablegram to the Canadian trade commission in London, from the Canadian mission, London, states that there is a promising outlook for the sale of Canadian products, especially of foodstuffs in Scandinavia, Denmark and Holland.

The report says that these countries have been undergoing considerable revision. Guarantees as to destination of imports into those countries, it is understood, must be furnished by consignees, but on this point there is little difficulty, and the supplies are for home consumption.

Considerable quantities of foodstuffs have been considered especially to Denmark, the Netherlands, and France.

When the Kidneys Went Wrong

The Back Ached Severely and There Was Trouble From Dizzy Spells—Had to Quit Work

* Ruthwaite, Man., April 22.—The doctor informed me I had to quit work for kidney trouble. To know the symptoms of kidney disease and the best medical treatment is available to avoid much suffering and to greatly prolong life.

Mr. Stevenson found that backache became so bad that he could not sit up straight. Other symptoms are headache, dryness and harshness of the voice, loss of appetite, constipation, looseness and constipation of the bowels alternating, drooping eyelids, rapid pulse, shortness of breath, asthenia, and pains and aches throughout the body and limbs.

It was reluctantly conceded that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the most satisfactory treatment obtainable. I have no doubt of proof in the letters appearing from time to time in this paper.

Mr. Stevenson, Ruthwaite, Man., writes: "After six months I suffered from kidney trouble, backache, etc., and could get no relief. My back ached so severely that I could not turn around without pain. One day I received a copy of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and was recommended to take them. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills were recommended to me. I tried them and had tried various other pills, remedies with no effect whatever, but immediately after taking Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I got relief, and two boxes completely cured me."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, at all dealers, Dr. Blumkin's Medicine Co., Ltd., Toronto. There are also the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., are on every box of the genuine.

HOW TO AVOID BACKACHE AND NERVOUSNESS

Told by Mrs. Lynch From Our Experience

Providence, R. I.—"I was all run down in health, was nervous, had head-ache and backache. I had a bad cold all the time. I was tired and had no energy. I had no desire to do anything. I had taken a number of different things, but nothing did me any good. One day I saw a picture of Mrs. E. Plinkham's Vegetable Compound and the advertisement said it was good for women, so I tried it. My nervousness disappeared."

Somebody says that it is a good thing people don't live their private lives in public.

It is a Liver Pill.—Many of the ailments that man has to contend with have their origin in a disordered state of the liver. Organs particularly susceptible to disease are organs particularly susceptible to disease from irregular habits or from eating in excess. This accounts for the great many regular visitors now present on these streets who are superior to Paris' Vegas tablet pills. Their operation though delicate is effective, and the most delicate can use them.

The only thing that beats a good wife is a bad husband.

A man may feel as young at fifty as he did at twenty, but he doesn't know half as much.

Plenty of Feed in North

Edmonton, Alta.—Receipts of cattle at the stock yards were considerably above those of last year and although there is an active demand for steers, the yards are full of cows and heifers. This condition is likely to be relieved, since the embargo on grain and flour has been lifted. With the embargo removed, and this restriction removed, farmers from the north are expected, and this is the direction that much of this class of stuff has been moving all winter. There is a tendency for the north to breed breeding animals and to raise feeders and both are required there.

Whether the corn be old or new growth, it must yield to Holloway's Corn Cure, the simplest and best cure offered to the public.
